CAMP LOCATIONS AND TIMES
All camps will meet in locations in the Voxman Music Building (93 E. Burlington Street). All classes begin at 8:30AM and end at 5:00PM, with the exception of Friday, June 16 and Friday, June 23. Please be on time, and see individual camp schedules for details. There are no evening classes.

ATTENDANCE
Campers are expected to attend all classes, concerts, and special events. Exceptions include illness or emergency. In the event a camper must miss class, the camp office (319-335-1635) must be notified immediately. The camp office will be staffed from 8:00AM-4:30PM, M-F.

PLACEMENT AUDITIONS
PERCUSSION IMMERSION: Students should prepare Parts 1, 2 and 4 of the audition material (Provided). Sightreading may be given at the time of the audition.

JAZZ: Students should prepare a piece, in any musical style (jazz, classical, popular, etc.) with which they are completely comfortable. If you are comfortable improvising, you will be asked to improvise a solo alone (No accompaniment will be provided). Some auditors may ask for scales. Drum set players should be prepared to demonstrate different styles such as swing, rock, and Latin. Sightreading may be given at the time of the audition. The placement auditions are a NO PRESSURE experience! We are only interested in hearing what you do best as a musician.

PIANO: There are no placement auditions for piano students, but students should bring 2-3 pieces (with scores) at the difficulty of at least the equivalent of Level “D” (according to IMTA syllabus). Of these pieces, at least one should be performance ready (memorized).
CLOTHING, EQUIPMENT, MATERIALS

PERCUSSION: Casual attire is acceptable for daily and evening activities, except for the final concert. Concert attire is “nice” casual (button shirts, no shorts or jeans please). Bring (1) a practice pad (Preferably a double-sided pad such as an Innovative Percussion RP-1, HQ Real Feel Pad, or other brand), and (2) mallets and sticks. All instruments will be provided.

JAZZ: Casual attire is acceptable for daily and evening activities, except for the final concert. Concert attire is “nice” casual (button shirts, no shorts or jeans please). Students must bring a folding music stand to use during camp. Electric bass and guitar players must provide their own instruments, amps and patch cords. String bass players must bring their own instruments. Please label all instruments and music stands with your name, email, phone, and address. A limited number of drum sets will be furnished but some players may be asked to bring their sets to use during the week.

PIANO: Casual attire is acceptable for daily and evening activities, except for the final concert. Concert attire is “nice” casual (button shirts, no shorts or jeans please).

FINAL CAMP CONCERTS/DEMONSTRATIONS

PERCUSSION IMMERSION: Friday, June 16, 5:00PM - VOX Concert Hall (VOX 2101).

JAZZ: Friday, June 16, 5:00PM - VOX Recital Hall (2301).

PIANO: Friday, June 23, 7:00PM - VOX Recital Hall.

MEALS

Resident campers will have a meal plan during camp, and most meals will be served in the Burge Hall Market Place. The first meal for the Percussion Immersion, Jazz, and Piano Camps will be a dinner in Voxman on Sunday.

Market Place Summer Dining Hours
See the East Side Summer Residence Hall Guide Book.

RESIDENCE HALL

Resident campers will be housed in Burge Hall, located at 301 N. Clinton Street. The Burge front desk may be reached at 319.335.3091. Bed linens are provided, but campers are responsible for making up their own bed each day. NO TOWELS ARE PROVIDED, so campers need to bring towels for the week. Campers may also wish to bring an additional blanket and/or pillows for added comfort.

For additional information, consult the East Side Summer Residence Hall Guide Book, which was emailed as a PDF.

DEPARTURE

Each camp/workshop closes with the final performance each week. All resident campers will check out at the main desk in Burge Hall.

LOCKERS

Lockers for instruments will be available at no charge in the Voxman Music Building, located on level 0 in the Student Commons.

HEALTH INFORMATION

The University of Iowa does not offer short-term health or accident insurance for the Iowa Summer Music Camps. Therefore, any costs associated with the treatment of injuries or hospitalization will be the responsibility of the parent or guardian of the participant. Any insurance carried by the parent or guardian may be used to defray medical and hospital costs. The Health Information and Release Forms must be completed and returned to the camp office prior to the opening of camp.

SUPERVISION

A group of six counselors, who are music majors at the UI, will provide much of the supervision during the summer music camps. Of course, the UI School of Music faculty and staff that are directly involved with camp will also supervise the students during classes and special activities.

ZERO TOLERANCE POLICIES

The Iowa Summer Music Camps strictly adheres to the University of Iowa zero tolerance policies regarding substance abuse (possession or use of alcohol, drugs), sexual harassment (verbal or physical), bullying, hazing, vandalism, or violence of any type. In the event of a violation, students will be reported to UI Police, expelled from the camp and sent home immediately (at their own expense). See rules and procedures, which will be included in the registration packet.
RESIDENCE HALL REGULATIONS
Commuters are not allowed on resident hall floors. Any boy caught in a girl's room (or vice versa) will be expelled from camp immediately. Please consult the East Side Summer Residence Hall Guide Book for additional information about policies and procedures. A PDF copy was emailed with the camp information.

EVENING ACTIVITIES
Activities are scheduled during the evenings, and are designed for resident and commuter campers. A schedule of these activities will be available at registration, and resident campers are required to participate.

CELL PHONES
Personal cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off during classes, rehearsals, and events.

USE OF AUTOMOBILES, MOROTCYCLES, MOPEDS
It is advised that resident campers not drive vehicles to campus due to limited parking options. Any resident camper driving to campus will be expected to surrender their car keys to the head counselor until the conclusion of camp.

MONEY
Avoid bringing large sums of money to camp. Camp t-shirts will be available for purchase for $10.00. Please bring cash or checks if you wish to purchase a t-shirt as credit/debit cards will not be accepted at registration.

ACCOMMODATIONS
Please notify the ISMC office (319-335-1635) as soon as possible if you will require any special accommodations during summer music camp. A reminder, the camp office will be staffed from 8:00AM-4:30PM.

SEVERE WEATHER
Camp buildings have designated shelters that can be used in the event of severe weather. There is some commuting between Burge Hall and Voxman during camp, so students should plan appropriate clothing in the event of rain. Students will not be permitted outside in the event of severe weather.
