ATTENDANCE
Campers are expected to attend all classes, concerts, and special events. Exceptions include illness or emergency. In the event a camper must miss class, the camp office (335-1635) must be notified immediately. The camp office will be staffed from 8:00AM-4:30PM, M-F.

PLACEMENT AUDITIONS AND OTHER INFORMATION

PERCUSSION IMMERSION: Students should prepare Parts 1, 2 and 4 of the audition material, which will be emailed to percussion campers well before camp. Sightreading may be given at the time of the audition.

JAZZ: Students should prepare a piece, in any musical style (jazz, classical, popular, etc.) with which they are completely comfortable. If you are comfortable improvising, you will be asked to improvise a solo alone (No accompaniment will be provided). Some auditors may ask for scales. Drum set players should be prepared to demonstrate different styles such as swing, rock, and Latin. Sightreading may be given at the time of the audition. The placement auditions are a NO PRESSURE experience! We are only interested in hearing what you do best as a musician.

CLARINET: Students will be asked to perform three major scales of their choice on Sunday. They should also play a fragment of a clarinet solo or etude of their choice.

VIOLA: Students will perform two 2-3-octave scales of their choice, and 3-5 minutes of a solo or etude of their choice.
PIANO: There are no placement auditions for piano students, but students should bring 2-3 pieces (with scores) at the difficulty of at least the equivalent of Level “D” (according to IMTA syllabus). Of these pieces, at least one should be performance ready (memorized).

CLOTHING, EQUIPMENT, MATERIALS

PERCUSSION: Casual attire is acceptable for daily and evening activities, except for the final concert. Concert attire is “nice” casual (button shirts, no shorts or jeans please). Bring (1) a practice pad (Preferably a double-sided pad such as an Innovative Percussion RP-1, HQ Real Feel Pad, or other brand), and (2) mallets and sticks. All instruments will be provided.

JAZZ: Casual attire is acceptable for daily and evening activities, except for the final concert. Concert attire is “nice” casual (button shirts, no shorts or jeans please). Students must bring a folding music stand to use during camp. Electric bass and guitar players must provide their own instruments, amps and patch cords. String bass players must bring their own instruments. Please label all instruments and music stands with your name and address. A limited number of drum sets will be furnished but some players may be asked to bring their sets to use during the week.

PIANO, CLARINET, VIOLA: Casual attire is acceptable for daily and evening activities, except for the final concert. Concert attire is “nice” casual (button shirts, no shorts or jeans please). Clarinet students are responsible for bringing a properly functioning clarinet and enough working reeds for the duration of the camp. They should also bring all the necessary equipment and accessories for the proper maintenance of their clarinets. (cork grease, swabs, ligatures, screwdrivers, etc). Viola students should have additional strings and any other necessary equipment for the maintenance of their instruments.

Clarinet students are also invited to bring bass clarinets and/or E-flat clarinets for the Clarinet Choir or just to receive additional personal instruction on these instruments.

FINAL CAMP CONCERTS/Demonstrations

PERCUSSION IMMERSION: Friday, June 14, 5:00PM, VOX Concert Hall.

JAZZ: Friday, June 14, 5:00PM, VOX Recital Hall.

CLARINET: Friday, June 21, 5:00PM, VOX Recital Hall.

VIOLA: Friday, June 21, 5:00PM, VOX Organ Hall, Vox 1

PIANO: Friday, June 22, 7:00PM, VOX Recital Hall.
DEPARTURE
Each camp/workshop closes with the final performance each week. All resident campers will check out at the main desk in Catlett Hall.

LOCKERS
Lockers for instruments will be available at no charge in the Voxman Music Building.

LUNCH OPTIONS
Commuter campers have several options for lunch. They may bring a bag lunch to eat on campus or they may purchase a meal ticket ($10.50 per lunch) to eat lunch with the resident campers in the Market Place (buffet-style) in Catlett Hall (350 N. Madison Street). Please be advised that the Market Place dining hall is “cashless,” so credit or debit cards must be used to purchase lunch at Catlett or cash can be used to purchase meal tickets during camp registration. If a commuter wishes to eat off campus, a parent or guardian must have indicated their permission on the registration form. If a meal waiver is not on file, commuter campers must eat at the Catlett Market Place with the resident campers, in the food court at the University Capitol Center (located across the street from Voxman), or they may bring a bag lunch to eat in Voxman.

If meal tickets were purchased as part of the online registration process, the tickets will be included in the student’s camp packet. Additional meal tickets may be purchased on registration day, but will not be available after that time.

HEALTH INFORMATION
The University of Iowa does not offer short-term health or accident insurance for the Iowa Summer Music Camps. Therefore, any costs associated with the treatment of injuries or hospitalization will be the responsibility of the parent or guardian of the participant. Any insurance carried by the parent or guardian may be used to defray medical and hospital costs.

SUPERVISION
A group of six counselors, who are music majors at the UI, will provide much of the supervision during the summer music camps. Of course, the UI School of Music faculty and staff that are directly involved with camp also supervise the students during classes and special activities.

In the event of severe weather, campers will not be permitted outside until the severe weather has passed.

ZERO TOLERANCE POLICIES
The Iowa Summer Music Camps strictly adheres to the University of Iowa zero tolerance policies regarding substance abuse (possession or use of alcohol, drugs), sexual harassment (verbal or physical), bullying, hazing, vandalism, or violence of any type. In the event of a violation, students will be reported to UI Police, expelled from the camp and sent home immediately (at their own expense). See rules and procedures, which will be included in the registration packet.
RESIDENCE HALL REGULATIONS
Commuters are not allowed on resident hall floors.

EVENING ACTIVITIES
Activities are scheduled during the evenings, and are designed for resident and commuter campers. A schedule of these activities will be available at registration, and resident campers are required to participate.

CELL PHONES
Personal cell phones must be turned off during classes, rehearsals, and events.

USE OF AUTOMOBILES, MOTORCYCLES, MOPEDS
During camp, commuters may use a vehicle as transportation to and from camp each day. They may not give rides to other campers. There are public parking ramps and metered parking spaces in close proximity to the Voxman Music Building which may be used during camp.

MONEY
Avoid bringing large sums of money to camp.

ACCOMMODATIONS
Please notify the ISMC office (319-335-1635) as soon as possible if you will require any special accommodations during summer music camp.

SEVERE WEATHER
Camp buildings have designated shelters that can be used in the event of severe weather. Students will not be permitted outside in the event of severe weather.
