The University of Iowa is proud to host the 5th Annual Iowa’s Statewide Veterans Conference. The theme of this year’s conference is Women of the Military where we will focus on the dynamic impact women have on the military as well as how the military impacts them. As soldiers, spouses, partners, mothers, sisters, or family readiness group leaders, women interact with the military in multiple ways.

KAYLA WILLIAMS
Morning Keynote

Kayla is an Army veteran and author of two books, Love My Rifle More Than You: Young and Female in the U.S. Army and Plenty of Time When We Get Home: Love and Recovery in the Aftermath of War. She will share her experiences as a soldier, a combatant and a spouse of a soldier.

MARY CALVERT
Lunch Keynote

Mary is an award-winning photojournalist who has covered women all around the globe and recently turned her lens to women in the military and the battle to reform the way sexual assault is handled in the military. She will present some of the photographs she’s taken as well as the insight into the story behind the photos.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Military & Veteran Student Services in advance at 319-384-2613.
